

Key Details - Canadian Autism Leadership Summit 2019

We are just a few days away from the Canadian Autism Leadership Summit (CALS) in Ottawa, ON, on April 2nd and 3rd.

The 2019 Summit Planning Committee is making a concerted effort to minimize printing costs. The Ottawa Conference and Event Centre has complimentary Wi-Fi and materials can be downloaded to your devices onsite. If you prefer having your own printed materials, please print copies of the materials and bring them with you.

There are important pre-reading materials to support the afternoon of day one. We encourage all attendees to read the Blueprint for a National ASD Strategy before coming to the Summit.

Other key details:

- CALS will be held at the Ottawa Conference and Event Centre (200 Coventry Road) in room 118.
- The registration desk will open on Tuesday, April 2nd at 7:30 am. Please pick-up your name tag.
- Breakfast will be served on both days starting at 7:45 am.
- The program will start promptly at 8:30 am.
- Materials for the Annual General Meeting were circulated via email to members. If you require a copy, please contact info@casda.ca
- All registered CALS attendees are invited to a reception from 5-7pm on Tuesday evening at the Government Conference Centre (2 Rideau Street). Buses will be available, and if you indicated that you will be attending the reception tickets will be included with your name tag. Please note: Upon entering, all attendees must go through security. It can take a while to clear security and government issued photo ID is required.
- Due to sensitivities this event will be scent free.
- If you require assistance or support before or during CALS, please contact info@casda.ca and/or locate Amy Lonsberry or Debbie Irish from the CALS Planning Committee at the table in front of the podium.

The Summit is an opportunity for leaders to come together to share their work, their ideas and their experience. We have a variety of interesting and informative panels and lots of opportunities for networking. It is sure to be a wonderful two days.

If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact info@casda.ca.

See you in Ottawa!
